

UB Parents Leadership Council: Leading the Way to Student Success

UB student success: it's your journey, too.

As you watch your student take their first steps on the path toward their future careers, it's worth remembering that their path through the University of Bridgeport is your journey, too. A successful, enriching college experience is born when students, families, faculty, and staff work in harmony to ensure that all possibilities for learning, living, and growing are explored to their fullest.

How will you leave your legacy?

UB depends on all the individuals in our community contributing their talents, knowledge, and experience, not only for current students but for the generations of learners who will follow them.
